IT'S TIGER STADIUM NOW

The home of the Tigers acquired a new name Jan. 1, 1961—Tiger Stadium. The change from Briggs Stadium was voted in April, 1960 but delayed until the Detroit Lions, who use the stadium in the fall, completed their football season.

This is the fourth name for the park at downtown Michigan and Trumbull. Originally Bennett Park, it became Navin Field in 1912 and Briggs Stadium in 1938, when it was remodeled for the last time.

Tiger Stadium is among the finest parks in the major leagues. Facilities for players, fans, press, television and radio are excellent. Although seating 52,904, it can be emptied in less than 10 minutes.

More than 10,000 square yards of sod needed annually to keep the playing field in top condition is supplied by the club's own farm. Sprinkling and drainage facilities are among the best and the latest-type field cover can be placed in less than a minute.

STADIUM FACTS

Capacity: 52,904 (Attendance records on Page 7).

Lighting: Eight towers, 1,428 lamps of 1,500 watts each.

Dugouts and clubhouses: Connected by tunnels, visitors on first base side, home club on third base side. John Hand, chief clubhouse attendant.

Concessions: Operated by Detroit Sportservice, Inc.

Fences: Left field, 340 from plate; center field, 440; right field, 325. (Left field fence 11 feet high, right field 9 feet.)

Stands: Top light towers to ground, 155 feet; third deck roof to ground, 94; first tier pressbox to ground, 82; second deck facing to ground, 34 feet. Flag pole 125 feet.

SPRING TRAINING

The Tigers have trained at Henley Field in Lakeland every year except three since 1934. During the war years, 1943-45, the team trained at Evansville, Ind.

Henley Field is located at the northern limits of the city and is easily accessible from the new Tampa Highway, Route 98. Playing conditions at Henley Field are maintained as close as possible to those of Tiger Stadium. The field ranks with the best in major league parks.

A new clubhouse was completed in 1959, and has all modern equipment. There is a special press room and a dark room for photographers. The press box at Henley Field has been enlarged and modernized.

TIGER TWINKLERS

Fifteen of the Tigers' prospects were selected for their minor leagues' all-star teams in 1960, when only two of Detroit's eight farm clubs were under the .500 mark. Five of those honored were on the Tiger spring roster and most of the others invited to the early speed-up camp at Tigertown.

Steve Boros, young third baseman from Denver, received the highest honor of all. He was selected by 600 members of the National Association of Baseball Writers for their 10-player All-Star Minor League team—called "the big leaguers of tomorrow." Steve's citation read: "Did everything but climb Pikes Peak."

Mike Roarke and Larry Osborne joined Boros on the American Association All-Stars, while Dick McAuliffe made the grade in the Sally League and Andy Kosco in the Carolina League. Ozzie Virgil and Phil Regan, mid-season All-Star nominees at Denver, were recalled by the Tigers before final voting.

TIGER AIR ANNIVERSARY

The Tigers in 1961 are marking their 35th consecutive season on the air with George Kell and Ernie Harwell again in the radio-television booth.

Kell, a former Tiger and outstanding American League third baseman in his playing days, is behind the Tiger Stadium microphone for the third season following one year on a national TV warm-up show. Harwell, who began broadcasting baseball in 1946, became Kell's partner in 1960.

BITS ABOUT THEM

AGUIRRE—Staged sensational comeback from year in minors, relieving 31 times, with 22 scoreless. Won two, saved nine games in relief. Beat Baltimore 4-1 in route-going three-hitter; retired first 16 batters and held New York to one hit in six innings before arm tightened in another start.

BRUCE—Graduated from bullpen in August. Held Chicago to two hits (Freese homer, Sievers double) and no walks for 4-1 victory in only complete game.

BUNNING—Led league in strikeouts second straight year, with 201 each time. Fanned 13 in game twice. ERA of 2.79 topped only by Chicago's Baumann in league. Cut home run pitches from Tiger record of 37 to 20. Pitched four three-hitters (three for shutouts), plus 10 scoreless innings in no-decision game. Worked 252 innings for total of 989 in last four seasons; 761 strikeouts in same period. Handicapped by weak support: no runs scored by Tigers in five of his starts, one run each in six others.

CASH—Hit 12 of 18 homers at Tiger Stadium, against all clubs except Washington. Won four games with homers. Ranked sixth among league pinch hitters with .391 average. Tied league record by reaching base six times (homer, single, hit by pitcher and three walks) in 12-2 Tiger victory at New York Aug. 3.

COLAVITO—His 35 homers more than any Tiger in 20 years except Greenberg's 44 in 1946. Seventeen homers at Tiger Stadium included at least one against each club; connected in all parks on road except Baltimore and Chicago. Hit six at Cleveland. Had 12-game hitting streak in September, others of 11 and 10 games.

FERNANDEZ—Reached season peak of .286 with nine-game hitting streak May 20-29; only once between June 4 and July 31 went more than one game without hit. Encountered trouble later but led club with 19 sacrifices and stole 13 bases.

FOYTACK—Ineffective because of arm trouble (disabled list July 3-Aug. 7) but strong at close of season. Had ERA of 7.55 before going on shelf, 4.17 after.

KALINE—Slow start, hitting only .224 on Aug. 14 but rapping .395 rest of season for .278 finish, lowest since his 1954 rookie season. Led club with 153 hits, closed campaign with even 1,200 in career. Fifteen-game hitting streak Aug. 27-Sept. 9 longest of year for Tigers; also had two 12-game streaks. Stole 19 bases, highest for Tigers since 1939.

LARY—Led league with 15 complete games; tied for lead with 36 starts and 274 innings pitched. Also set pace for most hits (262) and hit batsmen (19). Tied major league record by hitting four Washington batters in July 21 game. Two shutouts included one of 11 innings in which Washington got five hits. Also had regulation three-hitter and four-hitter. Balanced 2-2 vs. New York for lifetime of 23-8. Also handicapped by weak support: no runs scored in five starts, one each in eight others.

MAXWELL—Hit 16 of 24 homers at Tiger Stadium, against all clubs except Kansas City. Homers won six games. Led league outfielders with .996 fielding figure, handling 260 chances in 120 games with one error. Led club in clutch efforts, making or breaking 22 tie situations.

MOSSI—Left club before end season because of intermittent arm trouble. Last appearance Aug. 28, five innings for 6-2 victory over New York. Posted 4-2 mark against Yankees for lifetime of 14-10. Two shutouts: three-hitter at Washington ending Tigers' 10-game losing streak May 10 and four-hitter against New York.

REGAN—Came close to first major league victory final day of season with seven-inning five-hit effort at Kansas City but was 2-1 loser on unearned run.

BITS ABOUT THEM

ALUSIK—Has chance to become fifth outfielder. Perennial .300 slugger in minors, clouted 26 homers, batted in 106 runs and hit .329 at Denver in 1960. Style at plate reminds fans of Joe DiMaggio.

BOROS—Most Valuable Player in American Association in 1960 and rookie likely to succeed with Tigers in 1961. First call on job at third base, even before Eddie Yost's departure. With only three seasons of minor league experience, staked claim to big league status with 30 home runs, 119 RBI and .317 average at Denver last season. University of Michigan product and bonus baby of 1957.

BROWN—Herb Score's high school batterymate at Lake Worth, Fla., started with Cleveland Indians, played briefly with Chicago White Sox and comes to Tigers from Milwaukee where he never played. Pre-season choice for No. 1 catcher. Excellent receiver, moderate hitter with promise of power. Belted 16 home runs for White Sox and Miami of International League last season.

BRUTON—Fixture in Milwaukee outfield since 1953, Tigers' most important off-season addition. Great defensive skill commands center-field position, moving Al Kaline to right and Rocky Colavito to left. Sidelined by knee injury in 1957 collision with teammate Felix Mantilla but fully recovered after operation to lead all hitters in 1958 World Series with mark of .412 and enjoyed best two seasons of career in 1959 and 1960. Turned in .286 average last year, with 27 doubles, 13 triples and 12 home runs. Quick-breaking speed good for 22 stolen bases in 1960, career average of 18 a year.

COTTIER—Rated one of slickest-fielding second baseman in majors, needs only little more hitting to take over post vacated by Frank Bolling's departure for Milwaukee. Opened and closed with Braves last year, playing at Louisville between hitches. In 95 games at Milwaukee, beating Red Schoendienst out of job before close of campaign.

DONOHUE—Still only 22 but veteran of five years on mound. St. Louis youngster originally Cardinal property, traded to Los Angeles Dodgers in minor league last season and drafted by Tigers from Spokane. Split 1960 campaign between Rochester and St. Paul for combined 9-7 mark, mostly in relief.

EGAN—Towering southpaw with four minor league seasons under his belt basing big league bid on three straight shutouts for Portland at end of 1960 Pacific Coast League campaign. Enjoyed best complete season at Montgomery in 1959 with 201 strikeouts in 193 innings for 14-8 record and 2.70 earned run average.

FOX—Tireless relief hurler acquired from Braves on strong insistence of Manager Bob Scheffing. Worked in 53 games at Sacramento for 12-9 record last year, five more without decision at Milwaukee during final month of campaign.

McAULIFFE—Left-handed hitting shortstop, scrappy youngster, and one of brightest infield prospects in Tiger system. Called up last September after .303 season at Knoxville, appeared in eight Tiger games.

OSBORNE—Back for another trial at first base after winning American Association batting crown with .342 average at Denver last year. Also led league with 34 homers and tied for first with 119 RBI.

PEHANICK—Tallest of all Tigers at 6'5½" and one of Denver's most effective moundsmen last year with 12-6 record and 3.37 ERA. His second winning season in Triple A baseball.

THOMAS—Strong arm and good speed best assets of University Minnesota product with 1957 bonus tag bidding for outfield job. Also capable at first or third base. Jaw broken by pitched ball in 1959 but fully recovered last year to bat .281 at Birmingham.

WOOD—Relatively obscure prospect year ago, now ranking candidate for second base job left open by Bolling trade. Slender build in Ernie Banks mold, tried outfield and left side of infield before finding home at second base last season. Hit .305 at Denver after slow start, became crack playmaker and posted 34 stolen bases.

OVER THE ROOF

Only two batters—Ted Williams once and Mickey Mantle three times—have cleared the roof of Tiger Stadium with home runs during a game since the stands assumed their present proportions in 1938.

Williams put one over the right field pavilion (325 feet from the plate and 94 feet high) on May 4, 1939—Ted's rookie season with the Boston Red Sox. Bob Harris was on the mound for the Tigers.

Mantle's tape measure wallops for the New York Yankees over the same roof were hit June 18, 1956 against Paul Foytack; Sept. 17, 1958 against Jim Bunning; and Sept. 10, 1960 against Foytack.

ROUGH ON CASEY

The Tigers scored more decisions over Casey Stengel during his 1949-60 regime as manager of the New York Yankees than any other foe of the perennial American League champions.

Stengel stepped aside after 1,149 victories and 696 losses in 12 seasons. Detroit's record against him during that span was 119-145. Only team close to that mark was Cleveland with 113-151.

The Tigers captured three of the last five season series from the Yankees and got an even split in two others during the Stengel dynasty.

ODDS AND ENDS OF 1960

Al Kaline, who ended the 1960 season with exactly 1,200 hits in his career, played his 1,000th game against the Baltimore Orioles Aug. 9.

The Tigers enter the 1961 campaign with a 52-game scoring string. Their last whitewashing was Aug. 9, 1960 and that was the second in a row.

All three of the Tigers' grand slam homers last season were rapped at Tiger Stadium. Al Kaline, Norm Cash and Lou Berberet hit them.

A hitless effort against Washington Aug. 26 kept Al Kaline from claiming the longest hitting streak of the majors in 1960. He had 12 games in a row when stopped, then connected in 15 straight.
